Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurImagine a Montessori text in your home library which guides your putting together a childs corner in every room according to the same principles used by Montessori educators for more than a century. Activities are described to match your childs precise ages and stages providing authentic environments for choice and stimulating engagement. This little book can change your life with its practical wisdom. It will help you create conditions favorable to peaceful coexistence. can change your life with its practical wisdom. It will help you create conditions favorable to peaceful coexistence. David Kahn, North American Montessori Teachers Association (NAMTA)Biographie de l'auteurThe author's books are always about making the lives of children, and their families, happy, interesting, satisfying, and geared to the stage of development of each child. Her experience in this area is broad and international. Susan has studied child development and happiness in many countries since her first trip through Europe, the Middle East, and Asia in 1963. She has degrees in philosophy, comparative religions, and education. In London, England, in 1971 she was awarded the AMI (Association Montessori Internationale) diploma for teaching children from 2.5-6 years of age. Since then she has earned 0-3 and 6-12 diplomas. Susan is a wife, mother, grandmother, artist, and education consultant. She continues to learn and to share her insights. For more information see her website www.susanart.net
