Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurHardPress Classic Books SeriesRevue de presseSensational... It's a rare ability to render an audience helpless with laughter and crying with emotion at the same moment. Hugh Osborne's new adaptation of the Victorian comic classic The Diary of a Nobody has this ability in spades. -- whatsonstage.comPerkily inventive, highly pleasing, gloriously funny... while it shows clear signs of indebtedness to the skittish, playful aesthetic of that estimable long-runner The 39 Steps, Osborne's adaptation still possesses heaps of its own irreverent originality. --TelegraphPrsentation de l'diteurHardPress Classic Books Series
